

HR4026 is just another attempt to limit public access to information and entertainment content that might provide competition within the industry. How will this bill benefit anyone outside of the established broadcast industry? Should we just look the other way while you trade away our access to local or any other form of information? First represent the public.
Thank you for your attention.
Mark Hettelsater